

Do not lift the ban on cross-ownership of media. We all need to be heard in order to maintain a democracy and we are all well aware of how big corporate media are trying in every way to control what the American people see and hear which will influence how we vote and ultimately how our country will be run.